Brothers of Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity:

On behalf of the Pi Lambda Phi Educational Foundation, thank you for your generous support. This annual report highlights the Foundation's 2021 year, which includes the largest contribution levels to date.

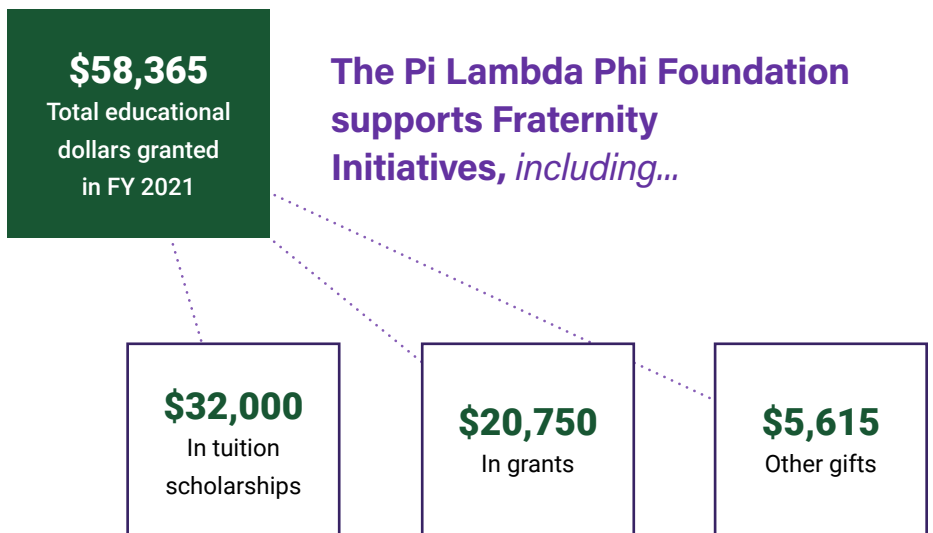

Thanks to you, over 1,700 undergraduates benefitted from our leadership and educational programs, and we were able to increase our scholarships to help brothers and families dealing with the economic impacts of the pandemic.

In 2021, when the pandemic forced many brothers to stay home or find ways to operate safely on campus, the Fraternity quickly adapted to support the undergraduates. Thanks to a $20,000 grant from the Foundation, the IHQ was able to revise its service model to work remotely with individual chapters and help them develop their own comprehensive plans to get students back on campus safely.

We have also increased our digital communications to regularly share news with alumni, recognize milestones and accomplishments, and engage with volunteers and supporters.

Thank you again brothers, for your dedication and support, "not four years, but a lifetime."

Gary Sanders
President, Pi Lambda Phi Educational Foundation

BY THE NUMBERS

2021 Total Contributions to the Pilam Foundation

$193,111

2021 Type of Gifts Received

- Restricted
$88,797
- Unrestricted
$104,314

Restricted gifts are designated by a donor to a specific chapter, scholarship, or endowed fund.

Unrestricted gifts are applied to Fraternity-wide educational initiatives, scholarships, or grants.

2022 Foundation Priorities

The Foundation has set the following priorities to help develop our brothers and grow the Fraternity. Our donors make this support and growth possible. 2022 will focus on relationship development.

- Establish annual Leadership Institute (immersive training for cultivating potential leaders)
- Speaker series (distinguished speakers at Fraternity events)
- Coaching Advisory Board (training and development)
- Alumni relations development (improved and more frequent communications)

2016 - 2021 Foundation Dollars Raised

Thank you Pilam alumni for a record-breaking year! Covid restrictions saw donors graciously giving more by increasing their annual gifts. Penn State sold their house and many of the shareholders donated their shares to continue to grow the chapter. And the Foundation rejuvenated support for endowments and restricted gifts.

SCHOLARSHIPS

$32,000 in Tuition Scholarships Awarded

Thanks to our donors, we were able to increase our scholarships during the pandemic to help brothers and families dealing with the impact of financial challenges. 26 brothers from 17 different chapters were awarded $32,000 in scholarships.

“It’s a fantastic honor and a greater responsibility to earn something like this. It means the world to me that alumni from all different chapters are willing to pull together to create these types of opportunities. ‘Brother mine forever.’”

- Veer Kaushik, Ohio State University

“Knowing there are alumni who give back to the organization shows me that these are not just faces on a composite, these are my brothers for life.”

- Peter Sweeney, Drexel University

“It shows true brotherhood, pride, and unity that so many alumni donated to help me. This scholarship will put me in a better stance financially for the future. It will help me achieve my dreams and motivate me to do better.”

- Clay Mohler, Temple University

“Getting selected for a scholarship by an organization that ‘I’ve ‘worked for, sweated for, cursed, and loved,’ means much to me. This scholarship reminds me that my time in Pi Lambda Phi is so worth it.”

- Owen Price, University of Pittsburgh

GRANTS

$20,000 Foundation Grant Helped Chapters Cope with Covid

Fraternity has always been an interactional experience with years of traditions based around meetings, hand shaking, mingling, hanging out, and getting together to socialize.

So what happens when a pandemic, a force of nature, takes that away?

WVU successfully recolonized in the midst of the pandemic, recruiting heavily through social media.

How Pi Lambda Phi adapted

When the pandemic peaked and many schools restricted on-campus activity, the Fraternity was faced with the prospect of no recruitment, no communal housing, no meetings, no socializing, and no growth. The IHQ and the Foundation realized they must quickly adapt to support the undergraduates.

A $20,000 grant from the Foundation enabled the IHQ to research how other entities were changing, and to strategize how to adapt their model to best return our chapters to a safe, yet functional model of operation.

Changing the model to make things work

IHQ revised the chapter services model to work with individual chapters and help them develop their own comprehensive plans to get their chapters functioning, and eventually get students back on campus safely in accordance with the policies of their respective universities.

Much like the rest of the world, virtual meetings became the preferred method of communicating. IHQ staff met more frequently (at least every other week) with chapter leaders to provide guidance to adapt to new policies. They even created a new policy for virtual initiation.

There were alternatives to in-person events, and lower risk events (e.g. outdoor activities) and Covid resources were provided on the IHQ website. Recommendations for Covid controls like quarantine rooms and a buddy system for mental health made it safer for brothers to return to their houses.

Navigating personalities was a challenge: brothers entrenched in the old world, those who weren't comfortable with virtual, and the new guys who didn't know what to expect. But chapters adapted and many even thrived.

New World Recruiting

With personalized individual recruitment plans guided by IHQ staff, chapters adapted to the virtual realities that they faced, and many used the new techniques to their advantage. Many chapters relied heavily on web/social media, or came up with other incentives like offering a scholarship.

The IHQ provided "boots on the ground" to recruit at Penn.

Thank you alumni!

Thanks to our alumni for generously supporting the Foundation during these turbulent times. Your support allowed the IHQ staff to dedicate time and resources to adapt and overcome a nearly unthinkable reality.

FEATURED FUNDS

Alan J. Silverman Fund

The Silverman Fund for UVA scholarships made a significant advance towards permanent endowment. The fund has provided $2,500 annually for an undergraduate brother. The fund is an excellent example of developing undergraduate and alumni relations.

TOP WAYS TO GIVE

Here are a few ways to support Pi Lambda Phi and maximize your contribution. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Contributions are tax-deductible.

1

Matching Gifts

Many companies offer a gift matching program to incentivize charitable giving. Some offer to double or triple your contributions. Ask your employer if they offer a matching program.

2

Retirement Funds

You can make a tax-advantaged charitable gift of appreciated stocks, bonds, mutual funds, or retirement funds including 401(k) and IRAs.

3

Bequests

Bequests are gifts that are made as part of a will or trust. As a nonprofit organization, bequests can be made to the Foundation.

4

Amazon Smile

If you shop at Amazon, choose Pi Lambda Phi Educational Foundation on Amazon Smile. They'll donate 0.5% of your purchases. Just pick Pilam as your charity and shop.

5

Donate Online

Make a donation online for a quick and secure way to support the Pi Lambda Phi Foundation.
